DR. GINNY BARO

DISRUPTION CURIOSITY

Transforming how leaders embrace change, lead with purpose, and live with joy.

Dr. Ginny Baro is the founder & CEO of ExecutiveBound® and the expert on transforming the human experience of disruption into a catalyst for growth, not a threat.

A former strategic technology leader who immigrated to the U.S. at 14, Dr. Ginny lived through disruption and felt the power of caring leaders, especially during a grueling four-year divorce. These experiences inspired her to develop leaders and create the transformative CARES Leadership Success System™: five powerful strategies to thrive in your career and life.

Today, Dr. Ginny partners with Fortune 500 companies and other organizations, impacting over 10,000 professionals. She invites leaders to explore new possibilities, create positive change, and drive measurable results without losing sight of what matters most to them.

An award-winning TEDx speaker and two-time #1 bestselling author, Dr. Ginny equips leaders to continuously elevate in business and life. With contagious energy, authenticity, and relatable stories, she creates a safe space for audiences to get curious, connect, and realize they're not alone.
